YUN combines the miraculous properties of the ancient oriental Five-Sense Therapy, blending contemporary product design and the use of soothing music, together with varying light effects. ~ $299.00

It eases the mind and brings emotional balance and stress relief through the herbal mists connected to the scents of Mother Nature, combining modern technology to perfectly demonstrate the harmony and oneness of life and nature.

This YUN diffuser is made of noble raw materials such as maple wood and manually processed glass, used in their natural state to maintain their qualities and energy. In doing so they increase the power of the Five-Sense Therapy and reveal the unique properties of the Chinese culture. The concept of the YUN comes from the five senses therapeutics of old oriental Chinese medicine, it helps to adjust the health of body and soul by the therapeutics of “five sounds”, “five colours”, and “five smells”.

Fives sounds: the elements of five sounds help to adjust the enginery of human being and creates the joy of body and heart, thus gets the effect of keeping healthy.

Five colours: the changing of five colours will delicately adjust the enginery of body and soul and achieves a perfect balance.

Five smells: the absorption of natural perfume of plants helps to improve the blood circulation, relaxing the body and the soul.

YUN synchronizes the oriental Chinese medicine therapeutics, it can help to calm and soothe anxiety, perfectly interprets the harmony and unification of the nature and the life.
